

Summer 2018 Artist-in-Residency Application

Residency Dates: 17-24 June 2018
Application Deadline: 15 March 2018

About the Residency Program

Each year, the Wilson College Fine Arts & Dance Department sponsors an artist residency program that provides free housing and studio space for a week. The residency takes place on Wilson's beautiful campus in South Central Pennsylvania (see page 2 for more details). This year, we are accepting applications for:

- 2 Visual Artists (send 10 images for review with titles, media & date of creation)
- 2 Poets or Performance-based Writers (send 10 pages, titles & publication information)
- A Dance Company with no more than 5 members (send link to 10-minute video sample)

Submit Applications To

Visual Artists: Professor Philip Lindsey at philip.lindsey@wilson.edu

Writers & Dance Companies: MFA Director Joshua Legg at joshua.legg@wilson.edu

Applications will be reviewed/selected by the entire Fine Arts faculty of Wilson College. We encourage you to visit Wilson College's website and learn about how our Fine Arts program, facilities and community can specifically help in the growth and development of your work.

- Artist Names (dance companies include company name, identify lead contact, and all dancers who would be involved in your residency):

- Website link (including bio/work samples/artist statement):

- Your Location:

- If selected, can you/your company stay for the full duration of the residency?(17-24 June 2018). Select Yes or No below:

- Please discuss your work plans for the Residency:
- Dance Companies: If selected, you will be asked to teach a master class to our undergraduate dancers and local community.
- Visual Artists: If selected, you will be asked to donate a work of art created during their residency to Wilson College's Teaching Collection; finished pieces or preparatory drawings/prints are acceptable.

Artists-in-residence are asked to hold an informal showing of their work following the residency, inviting the greater campus community.

Summer 2018 Artist-in-Residency Details

Studios & Work Spaces

- Dance Studio: 24-hour access in the spacious Appenzellar-Buchanan Dance Studio (sprung floors, mirror and sound system)
- Visual Art Studios: Ideal for painting, drawing, printmaking, ceramics, etc.
- Writing Spaces: Our campus is full of wonderful spaces to write, and our library is open for daytime research
- The campus sits on over 200 acres of wooded forests and streams with late-19th century architecture (available for any site-specific work)

Housing

Artists are housed free-of-charge on campus. Our dining hall offers meals at an affordable rate (see website for details), and there are many dining options off campus.

Supplies

Artists are responsible for their own supplies. We have yoga mats and projectors available upon request, as well as a large costume closet and prop room.

Wilson

Founded in 1869, Wilson College is a private, coeducational liberal arts college offering bachelor's degrees in 29 majors. Since 2014, Wilson is home to a low-residency MFA program in visual arts, choreography, creative writing, and interdisciplinary arts with an internationally acclaimed faculty. Located in Chambersburg, PA., the college has a spring 2016 enrollment of 923, which includes students from 22 states and 16 countries. Cooley Gallery: All visual artists-in-residence are invited to hang work in the gallery while in residence. Wilson will host a casual reception in the gallery late in the week, once artists have had a chance to put a few ideas together.
